

Welcome to Antiquites et Beaux Arts

Antiquites et Beaux Arts is a Maltese based company established by Spiteri and Borg Enterprises dealing with Antiques, Fine Arts and Collectibles. The family has been into the collection of Antiques and Fine Arts for the past three generations thus developing a significant experience in this field.

The launching of this company is not exclusively targeting trading or dealing of movable heritage assets. The company ventures to be pro active by offering full assistance and advice to their clientele. Antiquites et Beaux Arts is thus offering ancillary services as in the case of; art appreciation, collectors's weekends, evaluations and other courses in the realm of caring of collections.